

JUDY DENNIS EMERGING ARTIST TRAINING FUND

Information on this Scholarship

and

Application Form

NORTH SHORE
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

THE FUND

The Judy Dennis Emerging Artist Training Fund was established in 1994 with a bequest to the North Shore Community Foundation by the late Judy Dennis. Judy, whose artistic interests were wide-ranging, had particular interest in encouraging artists to develop their skills in any discipline and was the driving force in establishing what is now known as the North Vancouver Community Arts Council.

The Fund is managed and administered by the North Shore Community Foundation and scholarships are awarded annually from the investment income of the Fund. Applications for a scholarship in any year must be received by June 15. The applications will then be assessed by the Foundation's Grants Committee. Successful applicants will be notified by June 30.

Further donations to the Judy Dennis Fund are most welcome. Official receipts for income tax purposes are issued by the Foundation.

PURPOSE

This scholarship is intended to assist North Shore residents to develop specific artistic skills in their chosen arts discipline, which can include but is not limited to music, dance, theatre, writing and all types of visual arts.

ELIGIBILITY AND FUNDING CRITERIA

Applicants must:

1. be a resident of the City or District of North Vancouver, West Vancouver, Bowen Island or Lions Bay;
2. have completed basic training in the chosen art;
3. intend to pursue a career in the chosen art;
4. provide one letter of reference as described in the application form;
5. intend to use the funding specifically for arts training (i.e. attending courses, master's classes or working with a mentor)

The Foundation may only provide the grant to a school, registered charity or other "qualified donee" under the Income Tax Act. The successful applicant or intended teacher or mentor is not paid directly. Any questions should be directed to the Chair of the Grants Committee.
